Along The Road

Dan Fogelberg

Joy at the start
Fear in the journey
Joy in the coming home
A part of the heart
Gets lost in the learning
Somewhere along the road.

Along the road
Your path may wander
A Pilgrim's faith may fail
Absence makes the heart grow fonder
Darkness obscures the trail.

Cursing the quest
Courting disaster
Measureless nights forebode
Moments of rest
Glimpses of laughter
Are treasured along the road.

Along the road your steps may stumble
Your thoughts may start to stray
But through it all a heart held humble
Levels and lights your way.

Joy at the start
Fear in the journey
Joy in the coming home
A part of the heart is lost in the journey
Somewhere along the road.

Dedication

This yearbook is a collection of numerous memories from our years at Millbury Memorial High School. They will always hold a special place in our hearts. The people and places are a part of us, and will stay with us as we leave here to continue forth in individual directions.

We, the class of 1981, dedicate this book to the person who has been our class advisor for four years. Mr. Gary Robinson has guided us through the good times and the trying times . . . as we aimed for our primary goal — graduation. For his smiling face and continual support, we are deeply grateful.

Gary, this one's for you!

Whether in school or out, Mrs. Sylvia Stepien, our Yearbook Advisor, can always be found involved in some aspect of the yearbook. This is only a small token of the constant dedication that she has given us.

In addition to her creativity and many ideas, Mrs. Stepien's support has truly secured the success of the 1981 Yearbook. For these reasons we would like to show our appreciation and gratitude.

Thank you, Mrs. Stepien!

SO MUCH TO GO FOR

The Millbury High School Band, under the direction of Mr. Bruno and assistance of Mr. Nagy, has helped to raise the spirit of the student body at all of our pep rallies throughout the year as well as providing their support at most of our football games. In addition, the band has held various concerts and assisted in the musical productions put on by the drama club.

The National Honor Society, headed by Mrs. Frances Dupont, has added greatly to student involvement throughout the year. Its members have participated in candy sales, selling carnations for Valentine's and St. Patrick's Day, the arrangement of school dances, the organization of the Winter Carnival and sponsoring of a Blood Drive. This year the Honor Society invested in an ice cream freezer for the students and a copy machine for the office. Twenty-five new members were inducted this year to continue the productivity of the National Honor Society.

student advisory committee

The Student Advisory Committee this year is comprised of four students elected by the student body. They provide the tie between faculty and administration and the students. Through attendance at school committee meetings they convey the wants and needs of the students to the administration.

C. Gurney, M. Marrino, S. Boucher, M. McDonough.

The honor of Horace Mann is awarded to students achieving a cumulative average of 90 or better for two years. These awards are announced and pins are presented each year at Academic Awards Night to deserving Juniors and Seniors.

Two students each year are elected by the student body to serve on the Student Advisory Council. These students act as representatives to the State Board of Education, meeting with other students from Central Massachusetts at the West Boylston Regional Center to discuss various school rules and regulations.

The Student Council is comprised of twenty-four students, six elected from each of the four classes. These students run our school store and sponsor many of the dances held throughout the year. Mrs. Dupont serves as their faculty advisor.

Through the dedication of Mrs. Silvernail and its many talented members, the High School Chorus has presented many delightful concerts throughout the years. Many of its members have advanced to the Blackstone Regional Chorus as well. In addition to their own concerts, the chorus sang at the National Honor Society induction, and chorus members of the senior Class sang at graduation.

Work study students are a group of upperclassmen who are employed while they are attending school and who receive high school credits for their jobs. Mr. Murray serves as coordinator for the Work Study students and makes periodic checks on the students' progress in their jobs.

The purpose of the Millbury High School Business Club is to provide the students with an opportunity to develop an interest in the different aspects of a commercial organization. By sponsoring fund raising events, students acquire a sense of responsibility and gain experience in general business management. The Business Club also makes a cash award to the outstanding student enrolled in the Business Education program.

The Drama club this year under the direction of Roger Desrosiers and with the assistance of Mrs. Silvernail, has successfully presented The Sound of Music and The Mouse That Roared. The size of this club has grown tremendously in the past four years and is expected to become more active in the years to come.

The Sound Of Music

On December 13th and 14th, the music department and the Drama Club presented "The Sound of Music". The play was directed by Mr. Desrosiers and Mrs. Silvernail. Mr. Bruno conducted the orchestra, and Miss Oroszko choreographed the dances. The Seniors involved in this production were Gregg Woodward as Captain von Trapp, Pamela Cardin as the Mother Superior, and Lisa Murray, Robin Ingalls, Evie Griffin, Meg White, Lorraine Gauthier, and Brennan Wall. Cheryl Greene played the part of Maria, Matt Cadorette played Max, and Deborah Wade played Elsa.

The Drama Club's spring production was a comedy called "The Mouse That Roared" — a two act play that involved a small backwards country called the Duchy of Grand Fenwick, that declares war against the United States of America . . . and wins! Under the direction of Mr. Desrosiers, the cast included seniors Robin Ingalls, Gregg Woodward, and Bob Hamilton. Other members were Steven Laliberte, Deborah Wade, Matt Cadorette, Michael Cassidy, and Frank McNamara. Freshman Sherry Conger was the stage manager for the first time.

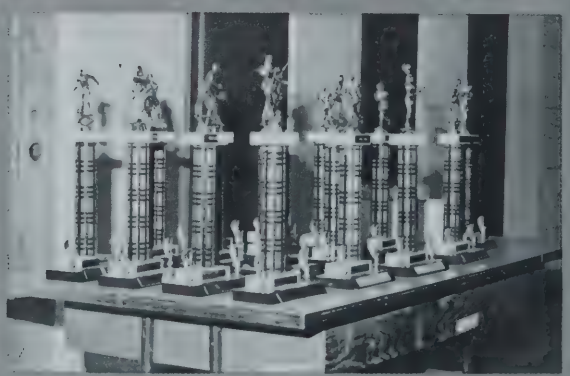
ATHLETES ARE HONORED

On the evening of June 9, 1981, Athletic Awards Night was held to honor athletes in all grades for their athletic talent and participation in varsity sports. Special awards were given to acknowledge the dedication and contributions of several outstanding individuals. These included District III Athletic Directors' Award to Pam Couture and John Nasuti; Donald Witkowski Memorial Award to Cheryl Warren and Michael Moore; Scholar Athlete Awards to Sue Altemus, Ann Brady, Deborah Dufault, Laurie Gagliardi, Nancy Graves, Mary Ellen McDonough, Karen Norton, and Diane Stowe; Athletic Director's Award to Mary Ellen McDonough and Brennan Wall.



RALLY PSYCHES TEAM TO VICTORY

Led by the cheerleaders, the entire school annually participates in two pep rallies — one prior to the first football game and another before the Thanksgiving Day game against Northbridge. The cheerleaders this year were confident, spirited, and inspirational to the student body. Also contributing to the energy that filled our gym were the school band, individual class's cheering, the rally spokespersons, and especially football captain, Paul Foley, who introduced his team mates. Yelling and cheering doesn't make a football team win games, but it sure lets the players know the whole school is behind them!

score board

football
coach: Bob Hayes
With many returning starters, there were vast hopes for a winning season. The first two quick wins had the woolies on track, but the rest of the games were hard fought ending with a tough loss to rival Northbridge and a 3-1-6 record.

boys cross-counrty
coach: Gordon Battye
Not the best season for this team, but they stayed in the race with a 4-11 record. Brennan Wall qualified for the District Meet, but missed the date and his chance to compete.

soccer
coach: Bob Chenevert
It seemed like the soccer team fought hard to hold on to respectability for coach Chenevert's last year of heading the team. Though many losses were by one or two goals, their record was 5-2-9.

girls cross-country
coach: Bob Nicoletti
The girls at Millbury had a great year under coach Nicoletti with a 16-0-1 record. They were unquestionably the most successful team in the 1980-1981 sports year. Both league and district titles were achieved.

field hockey
coach: An Harrington
Millbury High field hockey is the girls' most popular sport. Again, as always, they continued their winning ways with a fabulous season.

volleyball
coach: Robin Morris
The Millbury High volleyball team tried relentlessly against their experienced opponents, managing their best season, but it was still a losing one of 3-0-7 boys basketball

coach: Ron Dunham
The boys basketball team had a disappointing record of 6-0-12. They had a young team and are looking forward to a better season next year.

hockey
coach: John McKenney
Skating through another season of cold play, the team had a rough season. This was the last year for hockey at M.H.S. Coach McKenney tried his best to make it one of the best seasons they have had but fell just short. Their record was 5-3-8 boys and girls winter track

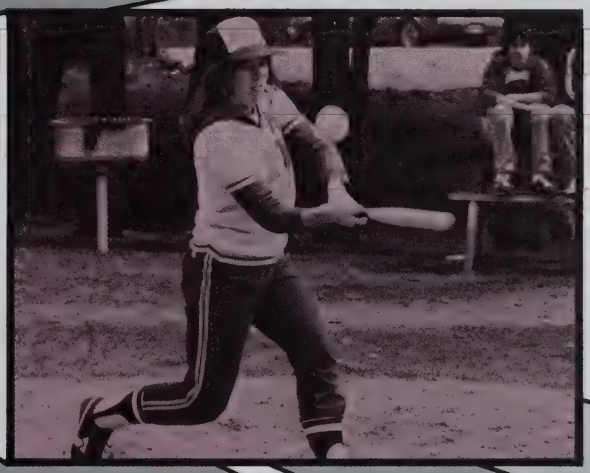
coach: Dave Wilbur
The winter track teams had a disappointing season, with the girls record 3-1-6 and the boys record 3-0-7. The winter track teams were young ones, but they competed well.

girls basketball
coach: Peg Bradford
The Millbury girls basketball team, tallied a winning season of 11-0-6, enabling them to go on to the District III playoffs. With a valiant try, they fell just short of their goal.

baseball
coach: Ray Greenwood
The team was not supposed to do that well, but the seniors were determined to make it one of their best. Their record was 13-0-7. On behalf of the team, we wish Ray the best of luck — the coach who led us to the Districts.

girls softball
coach: Dennis Leonard
With some brilliant playing, the girls softball team slid into a winning season of 10-0-9. Millbury's mighty sluggers really hammered home the runs.

boys track
coach: Dave Wilbur
Under the leadership of Captain Bligh, the Millbury High boys track team achieved a winning record of 10-0-4. However, the boys' only disappointment was in not capturing the S.W.C.L. title.



girls track
coach: Bob Nicoletti
The girls track team produced a brilliant 16-0-0 record for the 1981 season. This accomplishment was brought out by much hard work and training. Congratulations team!

tennis
coach: Bill Rosen
This year tennis became a team sport and was no longer considered a club. With a disappointing season of 1-0-9, the newly acquired team sport looks forward to a brighter year. Good luck girls!

golf
coach: Dick McGrail
The golf team started off slowly but by the time the team was really hot, the league title was just out of their reach. They ended up with a 5-2-4 record — a winning season for the last one in golf at M.H.S.

cheerleading
coach: Mary Jamieson
Rah-Rah-Siss-Boom-Bah! The Millbury Cheerleaders have sure come far! The cheerleaders this year showed great skill and talent in supporting all of our other athletes. We thank you!

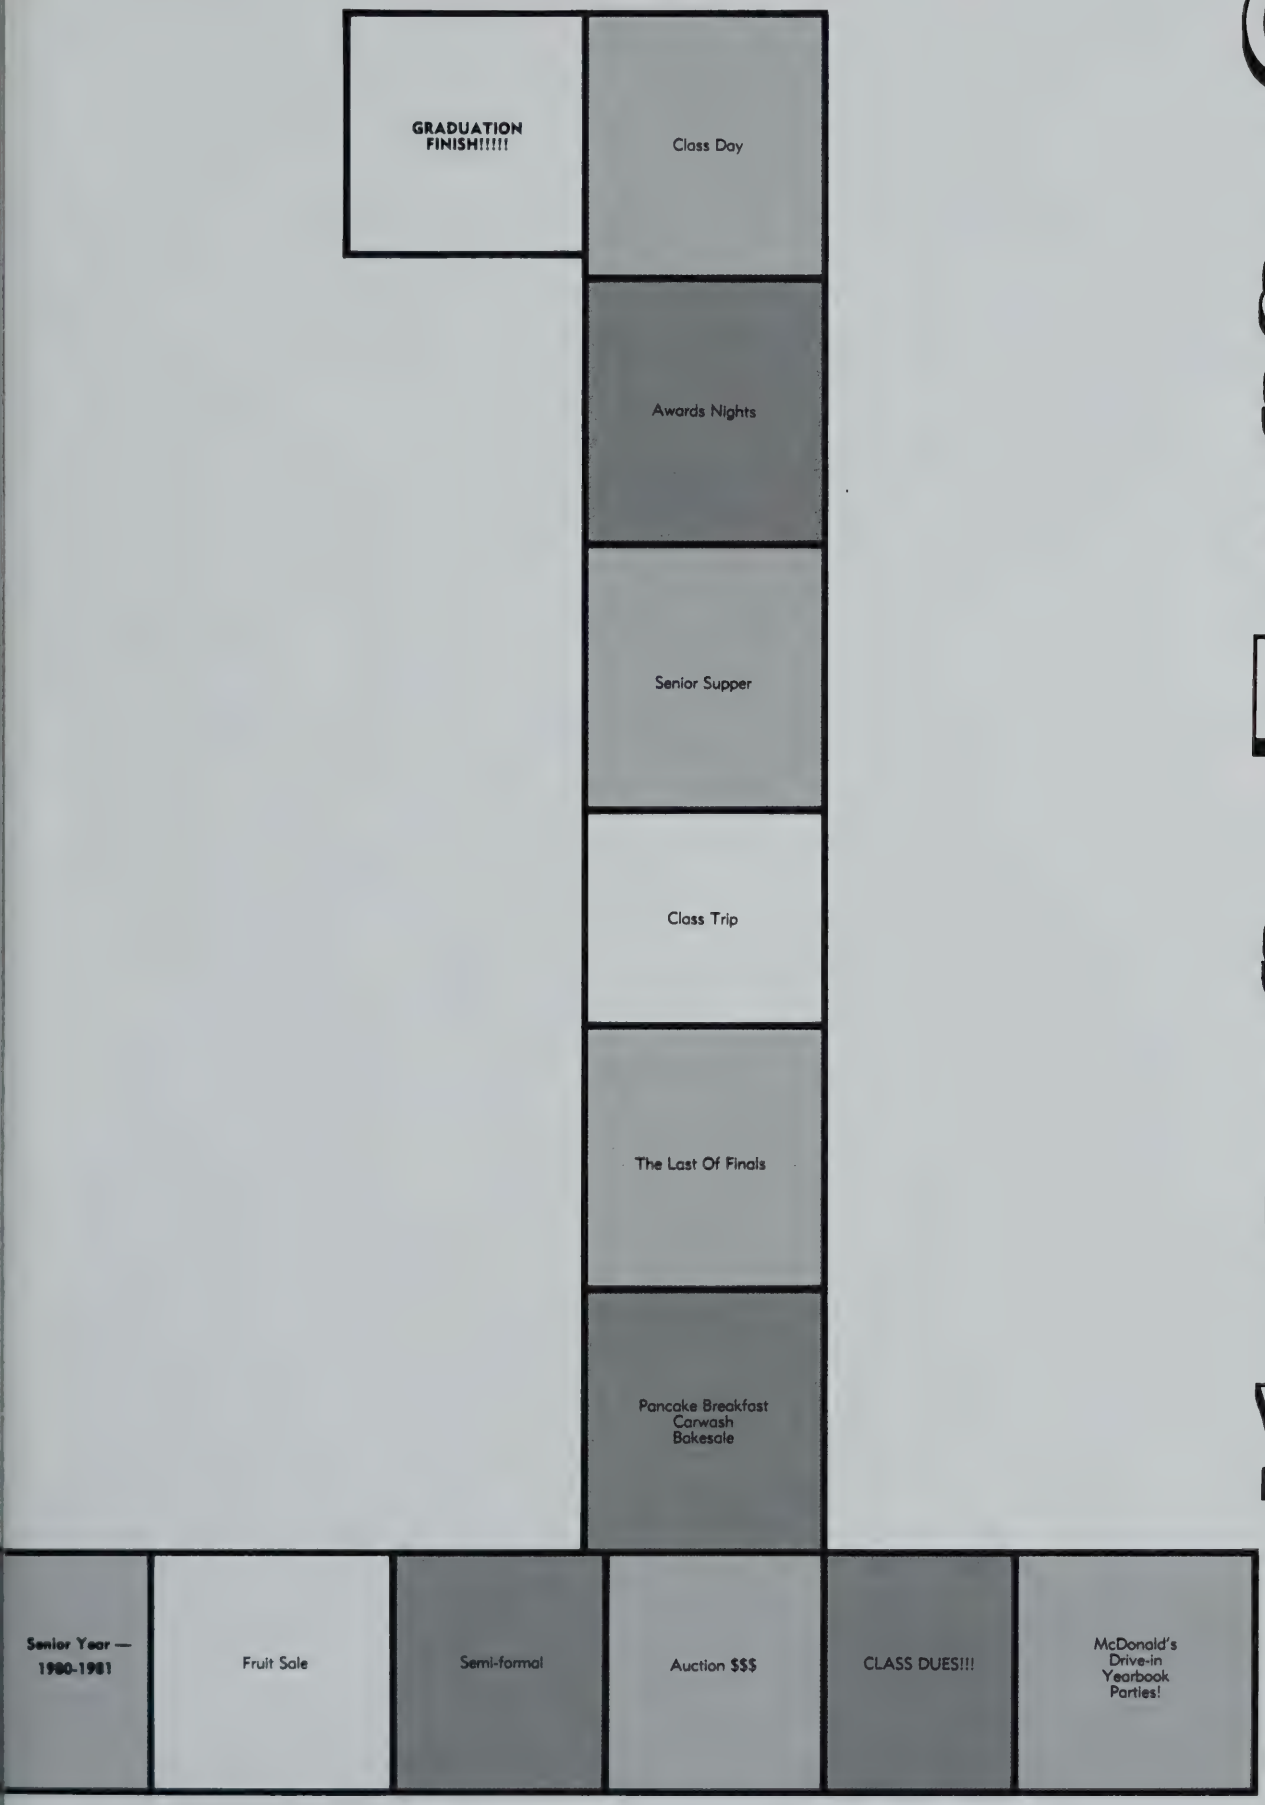
Class History



Later in the future,
As we think about the past,
All those times we spent together,
It seemed they'd always last.
Right here's where we gained our start,
And the days that went so fast.

Oh here we are, our time has come.
And here we go, going on our way.
Here we are, leaving Millbury High
And here we go, no one in our way.

Painting The Town Our night, at last

Our Junior Prom was a fabulous experience for everyone. The band, "Joshua Tree", provided excellent entertainment throughout the evening, and everyone danced to their inspiring sound on the elegant Mechanics Hall dance floor. Our theme song, "Wonderful Tonight", could not have been more appropriate; indeed, May 31, 1980, turned out to be a wonderful night we will remember always.

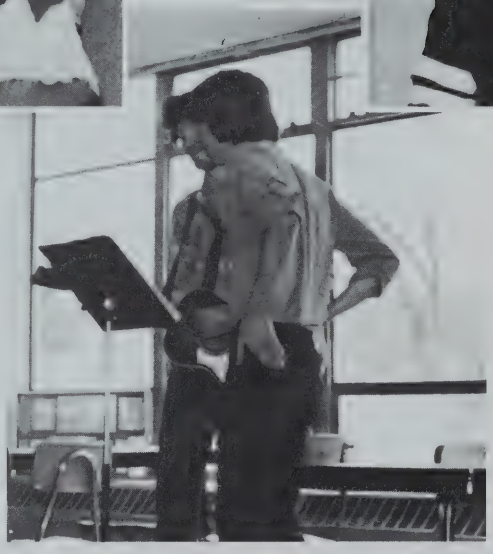
GHOULS AND GOBLINS

Traditionally, the members of the senior class have dressed up for Halloween in colorful costumes and collected money from teachers and underclassmen to raise funds for the class. Creative minds were at work this year in costume design!

Inspired by Mr. Wadsworth and Mrs. Dias, the senior English classes prepared and enjoyed Medievil "delicacies" this December 19th. Much to the seniors' delight, juniors served the dinner menu of cream of cucumber soup; sauteed sole; roast goose with apricot cognac stuffing, peas, carrots eaten on pita bread; and a dessert of raspberry fool and nun's cakes. There was also musical entertainment provided by Bob Hamilton, Gregg Woodward, and Pam Cardin.



One of the highlights of family living class was a mock wedding between classmates. This year, David Elie, Charlie Hastrom, Bob Anderson, and Fred Audette baked and decorated a class-size wedding cake. "Brides" received bouquets and "grooms" wore formal dress as "Reverend" Evers performed the ceremony and Mr. Gemme played the organ. Sue Ducharme and Tim Belliveau performed the traditional cutting of the cake.

Music To Warm Our Hearts

The Christmas concert was the first performance of our music department this year. Mr. Bruno conducted the band in their playing of traditional Christmas selections, and Mrs. Silvernail directed the chorus in their singing of both Christmas carols and a collection of Hungarian folk songs. A narration of the choral selection, O Come All Ye Faithful, was given by chorus member Gregg Woodward. It was an evening of musical enjoyment for all who attended.

Christmas 1980

Christmas cheer was brought to M. H. S. with the festivities of a door decorating contest — won by Homeroom 30. A new idea, contributed by the Freshman class, was to have student pictures taken with our Senior, Santa, Fred Audette.

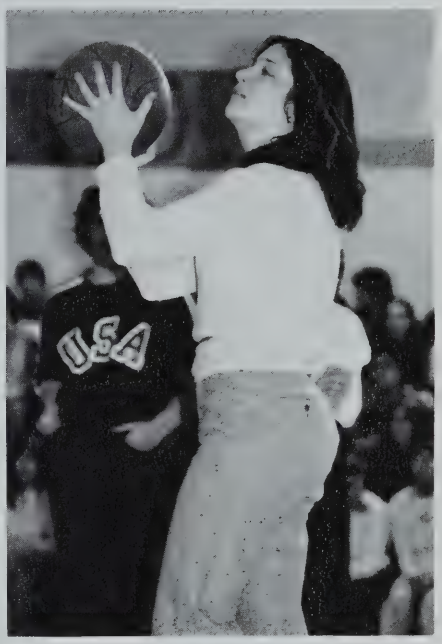
MILLBURY HIGH WINTER CARNIVAL 1981

One of the most enjoyable weeks during the school year was the Winter Carnival. It raised class spirit and school spirit in everyone. There were many hard-fought, grueling battles of skill and strength between the four classes, but through it all the Senior Class of 1981 shone above all the others and gained the victory of Winter Carnival "81".

Only the strong survive!

Wake up, you guys!

We don't mess around!



Shoot for the stars.

Boy, am I stiff.

Going Once . . . Going Twice . . . Sold!

Anyone who attended this year's auction, sponsored by the Senior class, saw the most organized class effort of the year. This fund raiser showed true class spirit and loyalty when so many people contributed items to be auctioned and their time to pick up, deliver, and sell all kinds of goods. Thanks to the professional skills of auctioneer Colonel Russ Lambert, the night of March 14, 1981, was an exciting as well as a successful evening.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT DAY

Student Government Day is a practical experience for all students in the election and functioning of town government. Each candidate has a chance to run for office, and all students and staff participate in the voting process.

Those elected to Student Government Day this year were: Sandi Devoe — Sewerage Commission; Evie Griffin — Parks Commission; Pam Johnson — Millbury Housing Authority; Darlene Manguilli — Board of Appeals; Scott Wiberg — Board of Health; Ann Dattis and Deanna Peterson — Library; Scott Bernier — Town Planner; Mark Lavallee and Michelle Marrino — Central Cemetary; Patricia Dunn — Council on Aging; John Dwinell — Administrative Assistant To Selectmen; Ann Brady — Town Clerk; Lorraine Gauthier — Chief of Police; Bob Anthony, Gail Choiniere, Martin Devine, Robin Ingalls, and Frank McNamara — School Committee; Scott Pendergast — School Superintendent; Randy Mogren — School Business Manager.

On Friday, May 1, 1981, these "officials" were actively involved in the actual business of each political office. Such issues as the effects of Proposition 2½ on schools, police, fire, and highways, the effects on business of the McGowey Bridge, and improvement of town recreational facilities were a part of the day's agenda, followed by a dinner for all at the Asa Waters Mansion.

PRESIDENTIAL CLASSROOM REPRESENTATIVES — 1981

Each year, four outstanding students are selected to represent Millbury High School and participate in the Presidential Classroom. This program provides an opportunity for these four people to meet leaders in our government and to attend seminars during their week-long learning experience in Washington, D.C. Our students are able to meet other high school representatives from all 50 states and from countries all over the world.

In 1981, Lorraine Gauther, Carol Gurney, Mary Ellen McDonough, and Michael Sharron were selected by the faculty as the 1981 Presidential Classroom participants.

CLASS DAY

Class Day ceremonies were held on June 5, 1981 in the school auditorium.

The ceremonies began with a reading of the Class History by Sue Altemus and Laura Humphrey. While we reminisced, our Winter Carnival song was performed. Written to the tune of "Turn the Page", lyrics were sung by Cheryl Warren, Pam Rydant, Sharron Chasse, Debra Boulay, Debra Moore, Chris Gonyea, Sandra Devoe, Diane Walsh, Tim Belliveau, Steve Cormier, and Denise Saylor.

The Last Will and Testament was then read by Diane Stowe and Margaret White, who left "unusual" gifts to the teachers. The Class Prophecy followed, read by Brennan Wall and Jean Chausse, with a cameo appearance by John Dwinell. Their "Weekend Update" described the future lives of fellow classmates.

After the traditional ceremonies the class presented Mrs. Sylvia Stepien with a music box and flowers, Mr. Charles Capparelli with a silver letter opener, Mrs. Fran Dupont with Flowers and a gift certificate to the Wind Tiki restaurant, Mr. Gerald Boudreau with a silver ruler and Mr. Gary Robinson with a beautiful Berkline Recliner. These people helped the class successfully meet the goal of graduation. We greatly appreciated their help.

Patricia Dunn, President of the Honor Society presented the class President, Lorraine Gauthier with an engraved plaque and a digital clock radio. While presenting the final gift, the class sang the class song, Along the Road, by Dan Fogelberg. And Class Day was over.

We the Class of 1981, being of sound minds and bodies, do hereby bequeath all our worldly possessions in the form of This Last Will and Testament:

To Miss Bradford — we leave a freshman class who will play by the rules.
To Mr. Georges Desrosiers — we leave an all night spree at Pigalle, (for you who don't know that Pigalle is, it is the most seedy, x-rated area of Paris). Remember to bring back slides for your class, French Culture you know.
To Mr. Healey — we leave a year's supply of gum.
To Mrs. McCarron — we leave a class of future secretaries who don't key pick.
To the Sophomores, class of 1983 — we leave the knowledge of how to cheer at pep rallies, and sing successfully at the Winter Carnival.
To Mrs. Wellens — we leave a bronzed copy of "The Pearl".
To Mr. Archambeault — we leave a state full of complaining Mass. Electric customers.
To Mrs. Silvernail — we leave boys who want to sing and play male roles in her productions.
To Mr. Bruno — we leave a package of pre-licked reeds.
To Mrs. Archambeault — we leave a freshman class who know the truth about her and Mr. Joseph Archambeault.
To Mrs. Stepien — we leave a Yearbook staff that will meet all its deadlines.
To Mrs. Dias — we leave a little red wagon that she can use to pull her books around.
To Mr. Battye — we leave a six inch ruler for his long, tedious hours in the cafeteria.
To Mr. Rosen — we leave a weighted tennis racket, equipped with threeway mirrors, and a lifetime subscription to "Body Builders Magazine".
To Mrs. Matthews — we leave a school full of students who read less, think less, and talk more.
To Mr. Roger Desrosiers — who teaches French, Latin, and Spanish we leave the ability to keep his tongue straight.
To Mr. Wilbur — we leave a new job.
To Mr. Leonard — we leave a consumer math class eager to watch movies dealing with the intricate delicacies of the oil rig business.
To Mr. O'Leary — we leave Mr. Drake.
To Mr. Ford — we leave Byzantine tart, remember Laissez-faire.
To Mr. Gemme — we leave the wisdom and guidance of Mr. Sack.
To Mrs. Dupont — we leave a year's supply of presorted candy and pretagged carnations.
To Mr. Drake —we leave Mr. O'Leary.
To Mr. Murray — we leave a waste basket that's cemented to the floor so he won't trip over it.
To Miss Harrington — we leave a freshman gym class that will take showers.
To Mrs. Julian — we leave students who have the mental stability to study health for 4 straignt terms and not split into 2 half year courses.
To Mrs. Griffin — we leave two more glorious years of being the honorable advisor for the not-so-honorable class of 1983.
To Mr. Boudreau — we bequeath Dana Shonbeck, king of Graphic Arts, lover of T-square and all around ink philo-graphic nut.
To Mr. Howard — we leave hoards of students travelling en masse to his table on arena scheduling day.
To Mr. Clancy — we leave an entire rack of snug fitting Calvin Klein' jeans.
To Mrs. Boyce — we leave the prospect of someday teaching an honors class something.
To Mr. Nicoletti — we leave you a cross country team that doesn't smoke.
To Miss DeFeudis — we leave Michael Sharron and Cheryl Ducharme.
To Miss O'Connor — we leave a new class of senior boys and some competition from the sophomore girls.
To Mr. Sack — we leave a Senior class, who despite your year of counselling and direction toward the ivy league, still go to state colleges.
To the juniors, class of 1982 — we leave some pretty big footsteps to follow in.
To Mr. Robinson — we leave the love, respect, and admiration of the entire Class of '81'.

. . . and so be it, on this day the 5th of June nineteen hundred and eighty-one, as witnessed by Meg White and Diane Stowe.

Teacher's Prayer

I want to teach my students how
To live this life on earth
To face its struggles and its strife
And improve their worth
Not just the lesson in a book
Or how the rivers flow
But how to choose the proper path
Wherever they may go
To understand eternal truth
And know the right from wrong
And gather all the beauty of
A flower and a song
For if I help the world to grow
In wisdom and in grace
Then I shall feel that I have won
And I have filled my place
And so I ask your guidance, God
That I may do my part
For character and confidence
And happiness of heart.

WE WILL REMEMBER . . .

Mr. Roach will be remembered by the students and the faculty as a dedicated teacher and assistant principal. He began his career at Millbury High School as a teacher in 1938. His involvement with the students extended beyond the classroom and he became a coach and later the athletic director. After many years of proficiency in this area he was given the difficult job of vice principal. It was his work as disciplinarian that touched our lives.

His task to discipline the students did not stop him from helping individuals or flashing a smile in the hall. He gave most of his time helping people, and he really cared. When he retired in 1979 it was a great loss to the school. On his last day, each class presented him with a small gift to show their appreciation. But none of them seemed worthy enough.

To honor Mr. Roach and his years of devoted service, the new athletic facilities at M.H.S. were dedicated to him. During a ceremony held on November 2, 1980, school personnel, students, and friends presented Mr. Roach with the official plaque. The Martin J. Roach Athletic Complex will be a lasting honor for a man who deserves our sincerest thanks.
